The DIMMER VIEW

The Public's Changing Face

There is a changing trend in the thinking of people. That will be exhibited when San Diego City holds its election Tuesday.

People are more doubtful than ever of their elected officials if the officials have been involved in anything that smells dishonest or deceitful.

The Yellow Cab romance with City officials was bad enough although the prosecution did not publicly offer evidence that removed any doubt. Maybe there wasn't any—and that has to be said due to the fact that those charged were not found guilty—save one. It may be that none of those who were indicted will be re-elected, and if that is so it may indicate that the good, old-fashioned sense of morality is returning to our people.

There are strong indications that the average wage earner is tired of supporting people who are welfare cheaters. He doesn't squawk too loud when he is called upon to pay for most of government's kinky programs but he is beginning to lose his ardor for the "welfare-way-of-life" philosophy.

There are other good signs too, but most people have their own pet peeves and may add them to the two above just to make the list more complete.

It was no surprise, then, when Senator Clair Burgener's recent questionnaire revealed that the desire for a better society is coming up strong.

Senator Burgener got responses from more than 100,000 individuals in his 38th Senatorial District a few weeks ago. The response was 40% in spite of the fact respondents were required to pay the postage for their answers.

The changing attitudes are reflected in these answers: There is a surge for a state withholding tax. It is probably a reaction to the knowledge that many people are avoiding payment, making the load heavier on the remainder.

The question: Do you favor state withholding?

Yes, 66% No, 28%

Pollution is a people's problem, too. As a result there has been a change in attitude about the gasoline tax.

The question: Should part of the gas tax income be used for pollution research and control?

Yes, 52% No, 39%

A more equitable arrangement for easing the burden for senior citizens seems to be growing.

The question: Should low income homeowners over 65 be given a property tax deferment with the taxes becoming a lien on the property to be paid on death or transfer of property?

Yes, 50% No, 39%

About the federally mandated right to vote for 18-year old youngsters. A sense of helping these teenagers over the trying years is evident by the negative vote.

The question: Should 18-year voters also have the right to sign contracts, purchase liquor, marry, contract, sue and be sued and hold office?

Yes, 40% No, 53%

As you would suspect, the younger the respondent the more was their favor of dropping the age of majority from 21 to 18.

17-26 — Yes, 56% No, 40%
27-36 — Yes, 50% No, 47%
37-46 — Yes, 46% No, 50%
47-60 — Yes, 40% No, 54%
Over 60 — Yes, 31% No, 61%

In all instances, less than 10% had no opinion.

It was the Governor's welfare reform program that got the most support. He offered a re-distribution of welfare payments so that the Aid to Needy Children families at the bottom of the scale would get more funds with a reduction to families with outside income. It would also require families to assume a greater responsibility for their own members.

That produced a lopsided Yes, 62% No, 8%. In all fairness, it should be reported that 23% admitted not having enough information to vote intelligently.

To the optimistic mind, there appears to be the first slight motion in the renaissance in beliefs which made this nation self-reliant, responsible and honorable.

If our appraisal is on the right track, a ground swell is just over the horizon by which we may again have pride and respect for self, family, society, and for our nation. It can come none too soon.

Unification Hearing Set This Evening

The first step in developing a unification plan for the Grossmont Union High School District area will be taken in a public meeting tonight at 7:30 p.m.

The Alpine Union School District, Cajon Valley Union School District, Dehesa School District, Jamul-Las Flores Union School District, Lake-side Union School District, La Mesa-Spring Valley School District, Lemon Grove School District, Santee School District and Grossmont Union High School District Governing Boards and all interested citizens have been invited to discuss unification with the County Board of Education, which is charged with submitting unification plans to the State Board of Education for all union high school areas in the county. Unification elections must be held in such areas on June 6, 1972.

The full procedure in order to arrive at a plan involves two meetings of the County Board with local representatives leading to adoption of a tentative plan, a public hearing followed by a third meeting of the County Board for adoption of a final plan, submission of the plan for State Board approval, and submission to the voters at the June 3, election.

The meeting will be held tonight at 7:30 p.m., Cajon Valley Junior High School, 395 Ballantyne St., El Cajon.

Sups Delay Redistricting For 10 Days

SAN DIEGO (CNA)—County Supervisor Jack Walsh gained ten days on the redrawing of supervisorial district lines on Tuesday, but probably little else.

The board agreed to hold up action on redistricting until Sept. 23 at 2 p.m. in a unanimous vote, but there was no indication that Supervisors Jim Bear, William A. Craven and Henry A. Boney would end their support of Plan 13.

This is the plan presented by Bear that redistricts Walsh out of San Diego, except for Point Loma, and gives him all of the South Bay Cities.

Supervisor Harry Scheidle's district would also undergo a massive shift under Bear's plan and he is strongly against it.

Walsh complained that he had not had an opportunity to study the details of Plan 13 as submitted by Registrar of Voters Charles J. Sexton. Final

Temperature Rose As Month Progressed

It has been a hot month. When September came there was little to indicate that record-shattering temperatures would come before mid-month.

The month started cool enough but it then started up the scale — stubbornly refusing to give respite anywhere along the line. A break came Tuesday when the high for the day was 20 degrees lower than the high of the day before.

The highest recording here was 105 degrees just after noon Sunday. It was only one degree cooler the next day. By dates, this is how the temperatures read according to local meteorologist Dale Chamberlain:

Sept. 1 — 78
Sept. 2 — 77
Sept. 3 — 78
Sept. 4 — 82
Sept. 5 — 86
Sept. 6 — 89
Sept. 7 — 90
Sept. 8 — 97
Sept. 9 — 95
Sept. 10 — 102
Sept. 11 — 105
Sept. 12 — 105

Accused Murderess Alta Kaiser Arraigned; Bail Denied Monday

GEREMONIAL POUR — San Diego County's newest recreational lake had an official assist in becoming a reality when Rancho San Diego Land Company officials joined with County and Congressional leaders to start the flow of water Monday. Joining in the turning of the waterwheel were left to right: Carl W. Olson, president RSD, Leonard Graysen, executive vice president and chief executive officer RSD, Henry Scheidle, Supervisor, San Diego County, and Representative Bob Wilson, 36th Congressional District. The lake will continue to fill at the rate of 90,000 gallons an hour for 24 days.

Vision Screening Test Approved By Lemon Grove District Board

Trustees of the Lemon Grove School District Board met Monday night and received its annual back-to-school report, discussed the wage and price freeze, approved a vision screening test, and handled several routine matters.

Dr. Robert Sutton reported to the board on the first day of school, noting that operations went with a minimum of confusion, although there were the expected problems resulting from transporting youngsters from overloaded schools to less crowded ones.

Sutton said that as far as attendance went, there were about 230 less students Monday than were attending when school opened last year.

The largest drop was at the kindergarten level, where 50 less youngsters were on hand than one year ago.

The next item of note on the agenda was a vision screening program sponsored by the Lemon Grove Lions Club.

The item had appeared at an earlier board meeting, but Trustees took no action, indicating that the matter should be considered by the school principals before final action was taken, although Trustees looked favorably on the plan.

The program, which will be totally funded by the Lions Club, calls for vision tests for all kindergarten and first grade students in the district. Parents of the youngsters will be notified by mail of results of the tests.

The screening tests, which will be given by a doctor of optometry, are to discover any possible vision problems which require professional care.

Dr. Jerry Legerton, who made the presentation to the board, said that only 3% of students receive tests before entering school, and that some 18% have vision problems.

The project, which will be funded by money raised in last year's White Cane Days campaign, will cost between seven and eight hundred dollars.

A good portion of the meeting was spent discussing the wage and price freeze and how it affects the district.

Byron Netley, District Superintendent, told trustees that the district received conflicting directives from the Office of Emergency Preparedness, the Cost of Living Council, and the County Superintendent's Office, on how the September payroll should be prepared.

On August 27, Netley told the certificated employees, that on the advice of the County Department of Education, payrolls would be made on the 1971-72 salary schedule, and the pay hikes would not be affected by the freeze.

On September 2, however, a bulletin from the County Su-

Griffen Faces Race For Post On Water Works

Two names will appear on the Helix Irrigation District Division 3 ballot Nov. 2.

Veteran water official Harry C. Griffen, of 8305 Alton Dr., Lemon Grove is seeking re-election. He has served on the board for 20 years.

His opponent is Richard Allen, 58, a self-employed builder who lives at 9220 Lamar St., in Spring Valley. The Lemon Grove district dips into Spring Valley at the west side. Director Bob Rundell represents the rest of Spring Valley but he is not up for re-election.

Griffen has been a champion of converting Helix Irrigation District property taxes to water use costs and the tax rate has dropped over the years. He is chairman of the board and president of the district. Griffen is also a member of the board of the S.D. County Water Authority and of the Metropolitan Water Districts of S. California.

Allen, a member of the Spring Valley Fire District's Board of Directors, is seeking re-election for that post currently.

Two Jailed On Narcotics Charges Here

Two San Diego men were arrested in Lemon Grove last week on charges of being under the influence of narcotics and possession of narcotics paraphernalia.

The suspects, William C. Tate, 24, and Orlando J. Campos, 22, were stopped by the California Highway Patrol for traffic violations at 11:30 p.m. September 7.

Upon contact with the suspects, it was noted that both suspects were in an intoxicated condition, but no odor of an alcoholic beverage was detected on their breath.

Sheriff's deputies were subsequently called to the scene. Both suspects had needle marks on their arms and their speech was slurred, according to Sheriff's reports, and their eyes reacted slowly to a flashlight.

A search of the suspects netted a narcotics "kit" in one of Tate's pockets, reports said.

New Teachers Feted in L.G.

Lemon Grove Kiwanis club entertained new teachers, new school board members, principals and grade level chairman at their annual Recognition Luncheon last week.

Each visitor was guest of an individual Kiwanis member and told of the guest's background. Dr. Robert Sutton was chairman.

Also up for discussion at the meeting was the annual Kiwanis Kids' Day event, scheduled for Sept. 25. Bands and marching groups from high and junior high schools will participate. Trophies will be given for best costumes, decorated bicycles and wheel entries, according to Elmer Ringelsen, parade chairman.

Complete details will be released in these columns next week.

Preliminary Hearing Set September 23

Mrs. Alta Marie Kaiser, accused assailant of Patrick Arnold Murphy, was arraigned in superior court last Wednesday on murder charges.

Mrs. Kaiser, who allegedly shot and killed Murphy with a .22 caliber automatic pistol at her Lemon Grove home Sept. 5, was released from University Hospital in time for the arraignment.

BULLETIN

In an interview late Wednesday, Deputy District Attorney Bernard Revak, who is prosecuting the case, said that there has been a switch in plans for the case.

He indicated that there will be no preliminary hearing and that the prosecution will seek a Grand Jury indictment instead. The Grand Jury process will start Tuesday, with an arraignment in Superior Court Dept. 9 to follow Wednesday, at which time a trial date will be set, if the defendant is bound over for trial.

At a bail review hearing Monday, the 32-year old mother of four was denied bail and a preliminary hearing was scheduled for September 23.

Mrs. Kaiser was taken into custody September 5 at her home, where the dead body of Murphy was found. Murphy died of a gunshot wound to the chest, inflicted by a .22 caliber automatic pistol.

Mrs. Kaiser was taken to University Hospital, where she underwent treatment for gunshot wounds to the right leg and left thumb.

According to her court-appointed attorney, Artie Henderson, there may be a change in the scheduled September 23 preliminary hearing and that bail may be set.

The attorney said that she was not present at the bail review hearing, as she had not been appointed to represent Mrs. Kaiser until Monday.

Deputy District Attorney David Cox said that if the defendant is bound over at the preliminary hearing, the case will then go to superior court for re-arraignment and a trial date will be set.

Cox said that in a case such as this one, the prosecuting attorney can either go through a complaint-preliminary hearing process, or through a grand jury process.

Mrs. Henderson, in indicating that the preliminary hearing may undergo a change, hinted that she thought the prosecuting attorney may decide to seek a grand jury indictment.

LG Man, Two Others Jailed In El Cajon

Gary Lee Koose, 18, of 7105 London Ln., Lemon Grove, was arrested last week along with two other men in an El Cajon bar on charges of possession of marijuana and conspiracy to possess marijuana.

Also arrested were Harold D. Abel, 31, of Santee, and Eugene J. Nelson, 37, who refused to give officers his address.

According to reports from the Sheriff's Department,

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

"Traer" is an action word. It receives a high rating for frequency of use. Pronunciation of this word is a little tricky but a close approximation for sounding it would be "trah-EHR" with a strong stress on the last syllable. Literal translation for "traer" is "to bring."

"Trae," pronounced "TRAH-eh" is a variation of "traer." "Trae" may be used with "el" (he), "ella" (she), or "usted" (you). Some good examples of phrases with these subjects are "El trae buenas noticias." (He brings good news.), "Ella trae un amigo." (She brings a friend.), and "Que trae usted?" (What do you bring?).

"Traeme" is the command form used only with family or close friends. It suggests the idea of "bring me." For example, we might say "Traeme agua, por favor." (Bring me water, please.) or "Traeme un vaso, por favor." for "Bring me a glass, please."

"Traigame" is the form used in business situations or with persons outside of the family or close relations. We may say "Traigame una toalla, por favor." for "Bring me a towel, please." to the hotel manager. Or you may say "Traigame los papeles, por favor." (Bring me the papers, please.).

"Traen" is the plural form of "trae." It may be used with the masculine "ellos" (they) and the feminine "ellas" (they). An example of this is seen in "Que traen ellos?" (What do they bring?).

"Traen" may also be used with the plural "ustedes" (you). This permits us to say phrases like "Ustedes traen los sombreros." (You all bring the hats.) or "Ustedes no traen la comida." (All of you do not bring food.).

"Traemos" means "we bring." We might use this to say "Traemos buena suerte." for "We bring good luck." or "Traemos muchas cosas de Mexico." for "We bring many things from Mexico." You may wish to test practice varying uses of "traer" as they appear in the phrases listed below. A recorded voice will help guide you in saying them when you call 276-2762.

IMPORTANT PHRASES:
Say "Que traen ustedes?" (keh TRAH-ehn oo-STEH-thehs)

for "What do you bring?"
Say "Traemos la comida." (trah-EH-mohs lah koh-MEE-thah)

for "We bring the food."

USEFUL PHRASES:
Say "Traigame un vaso." (TRAH-eh-gah-meh oon VAH-soh)

for "Bring me a glass."

Say "No me trae mas." (noh meh TRAH-ee mash)

for "Don't bring me anymore."

OTHER PHRASES:

Say "A quien traen?" (ah kee-EHN trah-ehn) for "Who are they bringing?"

Say "Ellos traen un amigo." (EH-yohs TRAH-ehn oon ah-MEE-goh)

for "They bring a friend."

The questions on immunization will be in addition to the usual ones asked in the Bureau's monthly survey provide a continuous measure of economic conditions in the country.

Newton To Head Citizens Committee For College

Grossmont Community College District Superintendent Robert N. Burnham, last week announced the selection of Dave Newton, of La Mesa, as chairman of an executive committee for the Citizens Committee for Grossmont Community College.

The committee will work for successful passage of a continuing tax rate during a tax override election scheduled for Tuesday, September 28.

Newton, station manager for KFMB Radio, will be assisted by Fred Agundez who will serve as treasurer for the committee. Other members of the executive committee will include Ken Jordan, Ivan Nolan, Mrs. Harriet Stockwell, Dr. Samuel S. Sloan, and Mrs. J. P. Harriman, La Mesa.

California State law sets a maximum tax rate which school districts, including elementary high school and community colleges, may levy for operating purposes. The state maximum for community college districts set in 1937 is 35 cents per $100 assessed evaluation.

Districts with low assessed evaluation, such as the Grossmont Community College District which cannot operate within the limit set in 1937, may levy higher taxes if approved by voters in the district. In 1967 the voters approved an additional 50 cent standby tax authorization bringing the possible tax rate ceiling to 85 cents. This approval was for five years. Voters in the district will be asked at the coming election to continue the 85 cent tax rate ceiling.

Without voter approval to continue the present standby tax rate authorization, the tax rate would revert back to the basic 35 cent level which provided to be inadequate in 1967.

Approval for continuance of the present standby tax rate ceiling will not change the present tax rate which has been maintained well below the maximum of 85 cents since the last override tax rate approval in 1967.

Grossmont College student enrollment has increased over 800% in ten years, jumping from 1200 students in 1961 to approximately 10,500 students last year. An even greater enrollment is expected in 1971.

Assessed evaluation of the district which has not kept pace with student enrollment stands at $510 million today, an increase of only 102% in the last ten years.

Repair Of Fuel Lines On Pier Causes Problems

The job — renew and repair fuel lines under the Naval Supply Center Fuel Pier on Point Loma.

Restriction — accomplish the work while fuel pier personnel continue operations of loading jet fuel, aviation gas, diesel fuel, and the Navy's new refined distillate fuel aboard Navy ships in the San Diego area.

And finally, work under the pier is pegged to tidal action. At high tide water covers most of the pipes under the pier. Because of this work can only be accomplished in this area during specified periods of the working day. This requires minute-by-minute scheduling of individual jobs. By this method related jobs concerning the fuel pier can be accomplished during those periods when high tide prohibits work under the pier.

Successful job accomplishment calls for extreme care by San Diego Navy Public Works Center trades such as welders, pipefitters and sandblasters. Since the lines on the pier are charged, attention to detail is required. For example, an inexperienced man could easily puncture a pipe and cause oil spills in the water during the sandblasting operation.

PWC started work on the project in June. The job was estimated to take 18,279 hours to complete at a cost of $279,423. "The Center sequence completion date was scheduled for Oct. 19. But I estimate we'll be finished with the job Sept. 26 unless the men run into some rather big problems," John R. Stewart who serves with the Center Planning and Estimating Division, said.

According to Alan Peters of the PWC Activity Civil Engineer Office this pier job is the largest re-piping job ever undertaken by PWC San Diego. Peters is a resident of 3835 Calavo dr., Spring Valley.

Advancing to Second Class: David Adams, Richard Beezley, Jim Carlson, Chris Stammerjohn, Jeff Wallace and Todd Wilkinson, all of Troop 398, and from Troop 383: Richard Moore and James Taylor.

Mike Morsching, Troop 383, received his First Class rank and Scott Wilkinson, Troop 398, advanced to Star Rank.

There were 15 merit badges presented; 23 Scouts received the "El Camino Real" award, and the "Camelback" award was earned by 18 boys.

The combined Troops 383 and 398 presented Ace Kennedy, Scoutmaster, a gift which was useful during the Colorado River trip, which the troops just completed.

Okapi Born at Zoo

A long-legged, large-eared baby born at the San Diego Zoo a week ago was placed on exhibit this week.

The newcomer is an okapi, a Congo animal that vaguely resembles a zebra but is actually related to the giraffe. The little female has been named "Makima" after a village in the Congo.

She is the offspring of 14-year-old Lisette, who arrived from the Congo in 1960; and Bill, born in the zoo in 1965. The zoo also has a fourth okapi, the male Baruti, born in 1962.

Donations To S.D. Blood Bank Sought

With an ever-increasing demand for blood in all San Diego hospitals due to advanced medical technology and the increased use of blood in medical therapy, the San Diego Blood Bank has appealed to several military and civilian groups for volunteer blood donations.

The summer of 1971 also has seen an exceptional demand for blood for open-heart surgeries at Mercy, University, Sharp and Scripps Hospitals, with each such surgery using 12 to 15 units of blood.

In July, there were 40 open-heart surgeries scheduled, in August, 24 were scheduled, and so far in September, 12 open-heart surgeries are scheduled, with more anticipated. In the past four years, blood usage in local hospitals has increased from a volume of 28,000 units in 1968, to a projected figure of 50,000 units in 1971.

To help meet the great demand for blood volunteers at the Correctional Facility at Camp Pendleton agreed to donate blood during a visit of the San Diego Blood Bank's mobile unit September 9.

The San Diego Blood Bank, located at the corner of Fourth avenue and Upas street in San Diego, has served the community as a non-profit service since December, 1950.

INSTALLATION DUE — Lemon Grove Kiwanian Ken Conrad will be installed as Lieutenant-Governor of Division 11 Cal-Nev-Hawaii Kiwanis September 24 in the Sunset Room at the Town and Country Hotel. District Governor Reed Harris will install Conrad, who was president of the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club in 1964. Clubs making up Division 11 are Chula Vista, Chula Vista, West, San Diego Harbor, Lemon Grove, National City, San Diego, South Bay and Southeast San Diego.

Kiwanis Hears Report On 'Family Service'

Currently sixty percent of marriages are ending in divorce. Two per minute every day that courts are in session.

One out of two teen-age brides are already pregnant when they go to the altar.

Family counseling is needed by 1 out of every 4 persons and 1 out of 10 persons is mentally disturbed.

These were facts presented by Albert C. Marshall, Chief of Purchasing for the Grossmont Union High School District in a recent talk about "Family Service" before the Spring Valley Kiwanis Club.

"Family Service helps men and women who are unhappy in marriage, couples planning to marry and unsure about some aspect of their future together, people who are facing adjustments following separation or divorce, parents who are worried about their children, teen-agers in conflict with their families and with society and individuals who have personal problems which handicap them in making the most of themselves and their opportunities," Marshall said. Professionally trained people are provided to help. At present there is a waiting list of 30 to 60 for counseling. An average of 4 to 6 interviews are needed and all help is confidential.

Marshall said that strong families make strong communities and the first important training is when a child is young and part of a family. Children are involved in 9 out of 10 divorces and 7.5 million children in the U.S. live in homes with only one parent. The Foothills Family Service Association is located at 200 Van Houten in El Cajon and provides "Strength to Families Under Stress".

Basie to Play 'Jump' At Padres-Giants Game

The ageless sounds of Count Basie, a super-star in music for more than 30 years, will be heard in concert at San Diego Stadium as part of the Padres final series of the season.

The 14-piece Basie band, along with the famous piano styles of Basie himself, will play in an hour's concert from the stands prior to the Padres-Giants games Sept. 28-29.

The music will start at 6:15 each evening and game time, with a National League pennant possibly on the line for the Giants, is scheduled at 7:30.

Basie and his band also will entertain during the games.

There is no increase in regular Padre ticket prices for the Count Basie appearances. Reserved seats at $3.50 and $2.50 are now available at the Padre Stadium ticket offices open daily at 10 a.m. Telephone ticket reservations also may be made by calling 283-4494.

Ever since he introduced his "jump rhythm" in 1938, Count Basie and his band have been received enthusiastically by audiences throughout the world. Musicians themselves rate Basie's band the greatest of all.

His records have been listed regularly among the top hits and one year sold three million copies. It's been a long road for the delightful Basie and his band, all the way from New York's Apollo Theatre 35 years ago to San Diego Stadium Sept. 28 and 29.

Grossmont Loop Football Carnival Tomorrow Night

By John Nicholson

The annual Grossmont League Football Carnival, held at Aztec Bowl, gets underway tomorrow night at 7:30 p.m. with marching bands from each of the eight district schools performing and football teams squaring off for one quarter of action each.

In the first quarter, El Cajon Valley will take on Santana, which should prove to be an easy contest for El Cajon.

The Braves, with several returning lettermen and some of the biggest players in the league, have added a better passing game to last year's fine running attack. The addition is expected to bring the El Cajon crew into contention for the league title this year.

In the second quarter, Helix will play El Capitan in what should provide the most exciting quarter of the evening.

Helix, always tough in the league, will pit its explosive offensive unit against El Cap's improved defense. El Cap, which is known for bruising tackles and an aggressive defense, will have a chance to get some scores on the board against the Helix defense, which is weaker than it has been in recent years.

In the third period, it will be last year's last place team and last year's league champs squaring off. Mount Miguel, which failed to win a single game last year, is an all new team, from the coaching staff right down to the special teams.

Grossmont, CIF runner up last season, is back with a fine offense and solid defense, which should be enough to overcome the Matadors.

In the final quarter, a pair of heated rivals will take the field in Monte Vista and Granite Hills. Last year, the Eagles managed to beat the ground-minded Monte Vistans, but an improved aerial attack could make the quarter a close one.

The carnival, which pits a Northeastern division against a Southwestern squad, will be under modified rules, as a kickoff will be held at the beginning of each quarter, rather than at the start of each half.

This year, the Southwestern division, made up of El Cajon, Monte Vista, Mount Miguel, and Helix, will have the slight edge.

Grossmont, El Capitan, Granite Hills and Santana, making up the Northeastern division, will concentrate more on a brutal ground game, while the Southwestern teams have better talent in the passing department.

Defensively, the two divisions are about equal.

Also featured at the annual affair are marching band exhibitions, featuring the Mount Miguel band, which last year marched in the Tournament of Roses Parade, and spirit contests, between schools.

On Saturday, more Grossmont League football action is planned, as all eight schools will start the exhibition season.

The Saturday schedule is: Crawford at Helix, Mt. Miguel vs. Mission Bay at Mesa College, Monte Vista at La Jolla, Lincoln at El Capitan, Patrick Henry vs. Grossmont at Aztec Bowl, University vs. El Cajon at Granite Hills, Granite Hills at Sweetwater, and Santana at San Dieguito.

All games will start at 8 p.m.

Gulls Open Camp In B.C. This Month

Twenty-three players have been invited to the San Diego Gulls' training camp in Trail, British Columbia. Opening workouts of the camp will be on Thursday, September 23.

The opening day of camp has been moved up one day from the originally announced starting date. Players will report to Trail on Wednesday, September 22.

Leading the way in camp will be returning Western Hockey League All-Stars Jack McCartan, Bob Courcy and Gerry Goyer.

McCartan was voted to be the first All-Star goalie position for the second straight season last year, while Courcy was the first team All-Star right winger. Goyer was the second All-Star team center.

The 23 players consist of 20 professionals and three amateurs. Heading the amateurs is San Diegoan Dale Pennock, a big (6-6, 205 pound) defense candidate who played with the Victoria Cougars Junior team last season. Bruce Cowick, a teammate of Pennock's last season at Victoria, will be competing for a left wing spot.

The latest amateur added to the training list is defenseman Ron Hopkinson, who was with the Gulls as an emergency replacement late last season but did not see game action. Hopkinson played with the Trail Smokeeaters last season.

New pros on the Gulls training list this season include goalie Ken Broderick, defenseman Howie Young and Dave Woodley, center Brian McDonald and right winger George Swarbrick.

The Gulls expect to receive more player assistance from the Philadelphia Flyers during the training camp period.

John MacMillan has been invited to camp, but General Manager Coach Max McNab does not know whether or not MacMillan will report.

MacMillan, captain of the Gulls for the past three seasons, is considering retirement. He has moved his family to Memphis, Tennessee, and is planning to continue his education.

Warriors Name Team Physician

Dr. Sidney H. Levine has been named team physician for the Golden State Warriors' National Basketball Association San Diego operation.

Dr. Levine, 32, is a noted orthopedic surgeon with experience at the Los Angeles Children's Hospital and Scripps Memorial Hospital in La Jolla.

He attended the University of Detroit, Wayne State University College of Medicine, took his internship and residency at Los Angeles County USC Medical Center and served with the United States Air Force at Castle Air Force Base in Merced. He lives in Solana Beach.

DONATION — George Sperla, Ways and Means Chairman of the Los Toros Pop Warner Football Club, makes a donation in a contest designed to raise money for the club. The contest includes prizes offered by Honda of Lemon Grove and Tri-City TV in Lemon Grove. Honda of Lemon Grove donated a Honda mini-trail bike, while Tri City donated a pair of portable television sets. A goal of $5,000 has been set, with proceeds to help defer costs of operations. Receiving Sperla's donation in the photo is his son, Mike, who plays for the club.

Newcomers Impressive On Aztec Football Squad

If there's one thing that really stands out in the mind of San Diego State coach Don Coryell as the Aztecs head into the second week of fall practice, it's the performance of the newcomers!

"I'm very pleased with the way things have gone so far," commented Coryell. "Everyone is displaying good attitudes and spirit. I think this can easily be seen in the fact we accomplish more in our first week than I hoped."

But, even more than the great progress made in the first week, there was something else that impressed Coryell. "The work of our new kids has been tremendous. We couldn't possibly ask for anything more from them."

The biggest "surprise" comes in the form of JC transfer Loia (Junior) Paopao from Mira Costa College in Ocean-side.

"Junior's really been looking good," Coryell stated. "He's a real pleasant surprise."

Defensive co-ordinator Claude Gilbert echoed Coryell's words of praise. "Junior has looked real impressive so far. He wasn't with us in the spring but has really picked up a lot in just one week. We've got him at middle linebacker and the way things look he'll be playing a real important role for us."

Gilbert also cited another new linebacker, Bill Ferguson, for his first-week efforts. "We knew Bill was a good one when he joined us and I've got to say he's lived up to our expectations."

The Aztecs got through the first week of drills without any major injuries. In fact, a trio of Montezumans who have been slowed by injuries at one time or another have looked great.

Receivers Tom Reynolds, sidelined in 1970 by knee surgery, and Marv Owens, who missed spring ball with calcium deposits on his ankles, both performed with no ill effects.

"Tom and Marv are in first class condition," Coryell remarked. "They've been running all week and show no signs of any problems."

UOP-Aztec Game To Aid Shrine Charity Oct. 3

University of the Pacific will be put out to average last year's narrow 13-14 loss to San Diego State on Oct. 9 when the Tigers face the Aztecs in the 27th Shrine charity football game in San Diego Stadium.

Details of the rematch, which will follow a 45-minute display of pageantry, were announced by San Diego's Al Bahr Shrine Temple and potentate Dudley Cosgrove.

Al Bahr Shrine committees are already making plans to insure a crowd that will exceed the 46,970 fans who last year saw the Aztecs thrash Fresno State, 56-14.

The men of Montezuma Mesa who assembled a 9-2 record in 1970 will be meeting a Tiger eleven from Stockton that last year won five games and lost six.

However, the Aztecs, in the shadow of their previous one-point victory over UOP, have nothing but respect for the tough Tiger squad despite last year's win-loss record.

USIU Footballers Hold Three-Hour Scrimmage

Although the United States International University grid-ers had only four days of practice under their belts, they performed creditably in a three-hour controlled scrimmage against Western Arizona J.C. last Saturday afternoon on the California Western Campus field.

USIU Coach Marvin Braden said of the affair "Arizona had been working out for three weeks and were farther advanced than we were, but the workout was good for us. It gave us a tough physical engagement against a good junior college team."

The Westerners held a 3-1 edge in scoring, with one touchdown coming on a 60-yard pass from Jeff Attebery to Jeff Baker and another for 40 yards from Wayne Oberreuter to Bruce Rogge.

Braden said although he was pleased with the scrimmage, "We still have a long way to go before we are ready to meet a team of the caliber of Los Angeles State in our opener Saturday in Balboa Stadium."

Braden praised his corps of pass receivers and also enjoyed for the first time depth at quarterback, where Attebery and Oberreuter received competition from Doug Omer, who quarterbacked the Westerners last year. "Omer ran and passed well and the position is his until someone can beat him out," Braden said.

In the running department, Jimmy Whitfield, returning fullback from Pittsfield, Mass., gained huge chunks of yardage inside, while Steve Williams, transfer from Santa Ana J.C., picked up good yardage on quick openers through the middle and end sweeps.

Defensively, Braden said, Pat Irby switched from defensive tackle to linebacker and seemed to do a good job in his new position, along with David Redmond, a defensive lineman from Laney College, and Eric Felder, a freshman cornerback from Tampa, Fla. Terry Hatcher, defensive end from Arcadia, also showed that he has lost none of the desire that made him a top player last year.

"We got a good look at a lot of players," Braden said. "We used 55 members of the squad in the scrimmage and came out without any serious injuries."

Romero To Star In Tijuana Corrida

Three of Mexico's finest young bullfight stars will stage the last corrida of the regular season next Sunday in the downtown arena.

Beginning at 4 p.m., Adrian Romero, Arturo Ruiz Lored, and Chuchio Solorzano will each face two Las Huertas bulls at El Toreo de Tijuana.

Profits are designated for public works projects of the city of Tijuana.

An honored guest of the city of Tijuana will be Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest, former U.S. Treasurer, now California Treasurer. A bull will be dedicated to her.

This will be the 18th bullfight of the season. And the cartel guarantees that it will be exciting.

Romero, 21, of Mexico City, has been the new sensation of the summer. He is the first Mexican matador to carry the same last name as the famed Spaniard who first picked up a red cloth and moved the bullfight from horseback to the ground more than 200 years ago.

In his four previous Tijuana corridas this season, his first along the border, Romero has especially thrilled fans with his art, his placing the banderillas, and with his daring. He won two ears on Aug. 22 and one on June 20.

Grid Opener Pits Chiefs, Chargers

Chargers vs. Chiefs, Sid Gillman vs. Hank Stram, John Hadl vs. Len Dawson... a new season begins with old rivalries.

Pro football's red tornado, Kansas City storms into San Diego Stadium to battle the Chargers Sunday in a big National Football League opener. Kickoff is 1 p.m.

San Diego would like to begin 1971 where it left off in 1970. The Chargers whipped the Chiefs, 31-13, in the final game of the season. However, Kansas City has been a crusty rival for San Diego and is the only old AFL team to hold a series edge over the Chargers, 11-10-1.

Coming off a 4-1-1 pre-season, the Chiefs have the same winning combination of sophisticated leadership (Stram and Dawson) and barrelhouse B-boys (Buck Buchanan, Bobby Bell, Aaron Brown, Ed Budde) which produced two Super Bowl teams.

TICKETS

STILL AVAILABLE
Reserved and general admission tickets for the game Sunday between the San Diego Chargers and Kansas City Chiefs at San Diego Stadium are available at the Stadium box office at Gate E. The office is open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on week days of a home game, and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. all other days.

This is the last week to purchase a full seven-game season ticket for the 1971 NFL season. As of Monday, the Chargers had sold 29,306 season tickets.

The Chiefs possess such other strengths as powerful running backs Ed Podolak, Robert Holmes and Wendell Hayes; touchdown receivers Otis Taylor, Frank Pitts and rookie Elmo Wright; monster 6-10 tight end Morris Stroud, an offensive line which averages 6-6, 258, mighty middle linebacker Willie Lanier, swift corner Jim Marsalis, ball-hawking safety Johnny Robinson and premier place-kicker Jan Stenerud.

San Diego finished a successful pre-season with a record of 4-2 and three successive wins, capped by a 21-14 decision over Atlanta before 32,555 at San Diego Stadium last Saturday night.

CHARGER BACKERS

LUNCHEON
The Charger Backers will hold their first pre-home game luncheon meeting at the Hanalei Hotel Thursday at noon. The public is invited.

Coach Sid Gillman will discuss the game against the Kansas City Chiefs Sunday. Players to attend are rookie running back Mike Montgomery, tackle Russ Washington, tight end Art Strozier and defensive tackle Tom Williams.

Gillman said he was pleased with the pre-season development of the Chargers. "We're improved in every area — attitude, depth, better football players. But we've got to play Kansas City before we really know what we've got."

Specifically, San Diego could point to these areas of improvement:

1. Pass protection: Charger quarterbacks were sacked nine times in six games and only twice in the last four games.
2. Pass rush: Opposing quarterbacks were sacked 16 times, nine times in the last two games against the Rams and Falcons.
3. Interceptions: The Chargers intercepted 10 passes to four for their opponents.

Against Atlanta, the Chargers beat a good team without using many first-line players including their starting backfield of Hadl, Mike Garrett and Jeff Queen.

Marty Domres (9 of 15 for 143 yards) and Wayne Clark (3 of 7 for 143 yards) shared the quarterbacking. Touchdowns were scored by rookies Mike Montgomery, Billy Parks and Leon Burns. The Chargers had four sacks, three by Tom Williams, and intercepted two passes. Rookie Bryant Salter blocked a field goal attempt.

San Diego will be at full strength for Kansas City Sunday.

Elton John Due Saturday At S.D. Convention Hall

By Lynn Jones

Appearing Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in the Convention Hall will be Elton John. Hookfoot will have second billing.

Elton John, who is really Reg Dwight, is a 24-year-old Englishman from Middlesex. He began playing the piano when he was three and studied for five years at the Royal Academy of Music until he was 18.

Dwight became known as Elton John after he met Bernie Taupin when they both answered an ad by the Regent Sound Studio seeking two people with talent. Taupin had the words and Dwight had the music.

"Lady Samantha" and "Sky-line Pigeon" were the first records of this team. The album, "Empty Sky," followed. Two more talents joined the group. They were Nigel Olsson, drums, and Dee Murray, bassist. They made two hit albums named "Elton John" and "Tumbleweed Connection." The most recent album is "11-17-70."

Last spring John made his first U.S. tour, missing San Diego. Now he will appear with his eccentric stage clothing and his and his acrobatic stunts. His show will most likely include 20 minutes of rock medley surrounding his "Burn Down the Mission." For more information call 236-6510.

The Off Broadway Theatre, 314 F Street, will open this week with a new musical comedy called "Victory Canteen." This comedy shows the homefront spirit of 1944. The star of the show will be Patty Andrews, a member of the original cast of World War II.

The show was written by Milt Larsen and Babby Lauher, with words and music by Bob and Dick Sherman of Walt Disney film fame. "Victory Canteen" recently closed a six-month run in Los Angeles' Ivar Theater. It will play a preview tonight, and then open officially Friday for a four-week run.

The setting of the show is in a converted Packard showroom on the corner of Roosevelt and Main in Wilkieville, Indiana, during 1944. Mom and Dad Davis run the place, with the help of their daughter Veronica, for the G.I.'s who will soon be going overseas to fight in Europe.

The cast will include Stewart Rose as Uncle Max; Brian Avery as Captain Jack; Bob Hanley, Texas; Bruce Baker, Spud; Sonny Carl, Sonny; Robert Towers, Melvin; Judy Madrox, Maureen; Dee Ann Johnston, Sherry; Marsha Kramer, Marsha; Robina Suwol, Rosie; Patty Andrews, Mom; Patti Shayne, Veronica; Marvin Miller, Dad; Carol Worthington, Frances; Robina Suwol, Cheerleader; Bob Hanley, Zoot; Jimmie.

Curtain time will be 8:30 p.m. Tuesdays through Sundays. There will be 2 p.m. matinees Saturdays and Sundays. For more information call 235-6535.

"Jack and The Beanstalk," a puppet show for children, will be performed in the Puppet Playhouse, 3903 Voltaire Street, Point Loma, at 2 p.m. Saturday and Sundays for an indefinite run.

"Snow White," a play for children, will be presented by the Spring Valley Theater, 9602 Memory Lane, at 2 p.m. each Sunday through September 26.

The Joseph Kesselring comedy, "Arsenic and Old Lace," about two old ladies and their guests, alive and otherwise, will be presented by the La Mesa Players at 8:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday in the Ben Polak Fine Arts Center, 8053 University Avenue.

Golf Tourney Due At State

San Diego State has been selected as the host for the 1974 National Collegiate Athletic Association Golf Tournament. It has been announced by NCAA Director of Events, Gene Duffy.

The tournament will be held June 17-22, 1974, at the Carlton Oaks Golf Course in San Antonio. This will mark the first time in history the affair will be held in Southern California. Additionally, this will be only the fourth time the tourney's been held on the West Coast. Stanford played host in 1948 and 1966 and Oregon held it in 1959.

"This is one of the biggest amateur tournaments in the nation, and it's quite an honor to be selected," remarked Aztec golf coach Frank Scott. "We're starting work on the tournament right now as we're getting our committees organized."

Barring anything in the meantime, the tournament will be the first NCAA University Division championship ever hosted by the Aztecs.

Author Is Hero Of Stage Play, 'Ghosts'

By Lee Sinclair

The true hero of "Ghosts" which opened Friday night at Actors Quarter is really the author, Henrik Ibsen, whose plays, written almost 90 years ago, speak with great insight to today's social issues — "Women's Lib", church hypocrisy, the "generation gap" and social diseases.

Oswald Alving, the author, has come home to die of "softening of the brain". Mrs. Alving, his mother, has built an orphanage to the memory of her late husband in order to completely erase in anyone's mind his dissolute life. Pastor Manders is present to dedicate the orphanage; and Regina, the housemaid, has set her cap for the young Alving, not knowing that in reality she is his half-sister!

When the truth is known and the orphanage burns to the ground, Mrs. Alving is left with her ghostly memories and a son who turns into a helpless infant before her eyes.

Ibsen's psychological insight is profound and the cast of this production, directed by L. W. Beck is to be commended for a well-paced and strongly characterized presentation. All roles were handled well, although Christina Brown as Regina, was not quite the picture of robust sexuality described by the author. Charles Jones's Oswald showed great flexibility, in interpretation. Frank Power's Pastor Manders was properly pompous and Alice Barnhart's Mrs. Alving glistered on almost all facets of a multi-sided role. Ray Roberts played the crippled Jacob Engstrand in an honestly-despicable manner!

The set by Jim Cody and special lighting effects by Joe Moore added much to create the proper mood.

The play will be staged Friday and Saturday evenings through October 16.

Program Due At Grossmont

The Firenzi Woodwind Quintet will present a program October 3, in Room 220 of Grossmont College, at 3 p.m. for the Fall Musicale of the Women's Committee of the Grossmont Community Concert Association.

Members of the group are Peter Swanson, clarinet, Fran Watson, flute, Barbara Sterling, oboe, John Ottaviano, bassoon, and George Cable, French horn.

The concert, which is co-sponsored with Grossmont College, will be followed by a reception in the Student Center Lounge. The Lemon Grove Women's Committee will be hostesses.

Mrs. Claybrook Winter is the Area Social Chairman and Mrs. Theodore Steele is the Lemon Grove Social Chairman.

Wild West Show Set For SD Arena

America's wild west triggers new excitement at the San Diego International Sports Arena Sept. 28-Oct. 3.

Buffalo Bill's Wild West and Congress of Rough Riders of the World — a re-enactment of the original 1883 wild west show — will have six evening and two matinee performances.

The show has been called "living American history" by producer Montie Montana, Jr. It is an exciting, action-packed sampling of life in the frontier American West, with a rousing exhibition of native horsemanship from around the world thrown in for good measure.

America's top Western performers and riders, along with representatives of 10 Indian tribes, comprise the 70-member cast. A heard of 10 buffalo is included among the 125 performing animals.

Tickets, priced at $5, $4, $3 and $2, are on sale at all Bill Gamble's Men's Stores, Central Ticket Agencies and the Arena Ticket Office.

SD Zoo's Year Is Successful Borthwick Says

The conclusion of another successful year at the San Diego Zoo and a monumental year ahead at the San Diego Wild Animal Park were topics of President Anderson Borthwick's annual report last week to members of the Zoological Society of San Diego.

Borthwick's annual report was part of a day filled with special events for members of the Zoological Society, the organization which manages the San Diego Zoo and the San Diego Wild Animal Park, now under construction.

Despite a year of conditions which were less than ideal for the tourist industry, Borthwick said the zoo met most of its goals of improvement and growth in the areas of entertainment, education, wildlife conservation and research. Attendance matched last year's record, and income and society membership both showed gains.

The pace is picking up at the San Diego Wild Animal Park, Borthwick added, with the start of construction on the village complex there Sept. 1. Completion of the electric transportation system is expected by the end of the year; and opening of the park to the public is planned for next May.

Borthwick also presented the society's awards for conservation to Karl Kenyon, marine biologist with the U. S. Fish & Wildlife Service; and posthumously to Charles Shaw and Lewis Walker. Shaw was assistant director of the zoo, and Walker was a naturalist who had worked most recently on the orientation complex for the Wild Animal Park.

Training Class Set In Bonita

The Santa Anita Dog Training School is starting a new training class Tuesday evenings at 7:30 p.m. The popular classes are held at Bonita Valley Farms on Bonita road in Bonita.

Basic obedience commands will be taught, such as sit, stay, down, heeling, coming when called, as well as problems such as chewing, digging, and getting out of yards, or excessive barking.

As the classes are popular at this time of year it might be well for those interested to call and make a reservation as the classes are limited, or come directly to the training field. Any dog five months old and up may be enrolled.

For further information, call 474-2400.

Production Plans Set By USIU's Director

Gordon Hilker, Director of United States International University's School of Performing Arts, 350 Cedar st., announced the 1971-72 general production plans which call for 128 performances of 14 separate theatrical productions to be presented in four different theatres, both indoor and outdoor.

Heading the schedule will be 48 performances of five major productions by USIU's International Company, the indoor presentations comparable to USIU's summer Starlight Musicals at the Zoo. Included will be two musicals, one comedy, one mystery and one evening of ballet. Last season's hits turned out to be the two musicals which were "A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum" and "The Boy Friend."

Actual shows and specific play dates have not as yet been finalized, Hilker explained.

The second type of theatrical productions being presented the forthcoming year by USIU's School of Performing Arts will be a series of three different children's shows, presented twice each Saturday during the academic year excepting school holidays. Now in its fourth year, the children's theatre presentations have so grown in popularity that this season they are being moved from the downstairs studio theatre to the upstairs, larger and more commodious Theatre West in the Center for the Performing Arts Building.

The third series of significant productions are the USIU School of Performing Arts Student productions. The public is invited to attend these productions on a first-come, first-served basis and they have proven very popular. Large audiences last year applauded the student production of "The Devils" which was directed by one of the faculty members of the school.

As usual, USIU will produce

Eye Checks Advised For Youngsters

"Parents and teachers who are aware of possible vision difficulties by their elementary and secondary students can be instrumental in helping overcome possible vision handicaps, and help to improve their student's learning abilities."

This was emphasized in a "back-to-school" statement by the president of the San Diego County Optometric Society, Dr. Alvin May.

May further stated that throughout the nation as many as eight million elementary and secondary students are not learning to read adequately because of undetected — but correctable — vision handicaps. He also noted that one child in seven is often handicapped in his or her ability to acquire essential reading skills.

"Most children with visual handicaps do not know that they are seeing improperly, they assume that everyone sees that way. Their parents often tend to place too great a reliance on a chart eye test, which in itself does not provide a complete picture of the child's visual performance or capabilities."

May concluded by suggesting that "every child in San Diego County have a complete professional vision examination before entering kindergarten and annual checkups to provide maximum preventive care and early correction."

Farmers Eye Record

Despite a delayed harvest for many important crops and a loss of sales caused by rail and dock strikes, California "armers are anticipating another record year in gross income."

According to a forecast released recently by Bank of America's San Diego Regional Vice President Gilbert R. Fox, the state's farmers will realize gross income of $4,950,000,000 in 1971, up four percent from 1970.

Net farm income, however, is expected to drop to $940,000,000, down only slightly from last year but the lowest since $937,700,000 in 1967.

'Snow White' Opens Run At S.V. Theatre

By Kay Zubrod

The Spring Valley Theatre opened with its first production last Sunday, performing Ginger Cody's adaptation of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs."

Gladyce Levy and Mary Anne Price, organizers of the theatre group, did a job with direction and set design.

Laurie Nelson, played Snow White, and Terry Norton, was the wicked Queen.

The dwarfs were all well portrayed, with Grumpy, played by Robert Mears, appropriately the head of the family, and just as grouchy as could be. For a touch of pure beauty, there were darling wood nymphs and dancers.

"Snow White" is a production the entire family will enjoy. It will continue its run each Sunday at 2 p.m. through Sept. 26, at the Spring Valley Theatre, 9062 Memory lane, Spring Valley.

College Concert Slated Wednesday At Grossmont

The Grossmont College Office of Community Services will present the Chamber Arts Players in concert at 11 a.m. and 8 p.m., next Wednesday, in the Fine Arts Lecture Hall. The quintet, all members of the San Diego Symphony Orchestra, will perform "Quintet No. 6, K 581," by Mozart and "Quintet Op. 115," by Brahms.

Violinist Nancy Garvey received her master's degree from the Juilliard School of Music and served as concertmistress for the Rheinisches Chamber Orchestra while studying in Germany. In addition to playing with the San Diego Symphony, she is also concertmistress of the La Jolla Chamber Orchestra and an instructor at the Pacific School of the Arts in La Jolla.

Violinist Rachelle Lawrence studied with Antonio Brosa in London and Louis Persinger in New York where she also performed with Josef Marx and Fritz Rikko. She served as assistant to the concertmaster for the Albuquerque Civic Symphony. She is a member of the Young Women's Quartet and a private teacher.

Violist Fred Sumpler is a former member of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra and San Francisco Symphony and Chamber Orchestra. He is also a member of the Griller String Quartet in San Francisco and an artist in residence at the University of California, Berkeley.

Paul Anderson, cellist, graduated from the University of Wisconsin and studied with Edgar Lustgarten. He is a former member of the St. Louis Symphony and La Salle Quartet. First cellist for the San Diego Symphony, he is also a member of the Modern Arts Quartet, La Jolla Chamber Orchestra, Montezuma Quartet and a member of the music department faculty at San Diego State College.

Clarinetist Charles MacLeod, principal clarinetist with the San Diego Symphony and conductor of the Civic Youth Orchestra II, is a graduate of the Eastman School of Music. He received his master of arts degree in music from San Fernando State College.

He has been a member of several philharmonic and symphony orchestras in the eastern United States and Canada and more recently, performed as solo clarinetist with the Ventura County Symphony, the Santa Barbara Symphony, the Los Angeles Wind Ensemble and the Ventura County Wind and Percussion group. He is presently a member of the Music Department faculty at Grossmont College.

The public is invited to enjoy a concert performed by these outstanding local musicians. The price of admission is $1 with tickets available at the door before each performance.

Former 'Millionaire' Star Miller Gets Role

Marvin Miller, still warmly remembered for his long-running roles in "The Millionaire" and on the Louella Parsons radio program, has been signed by producer Vincent Miranda to co-star in "Victory Canteen," opening tonight for a limited run at the Off Broadway Theatre.

Patty Andrews, of the famed Andrews Sisters, is the star of the nostalgic musical which takes place in a servicemen's canteen during World War II. The show recreates the lush era of the 40's and is a delightful musical entertainment which will be highly enjoyed by all ages.

The book was written by Milt Larson and Bob Lauher with a great score by Academy Award winners Richard and Robert Sherman who won the Oscar for "Mary Poppins." The original production was staged and directed by Jack Baker. James Burrows will direct the San Diego production.

LG Man, Two Others Arrested

Abel contacted officers from a gas station in El Cajon. He told deputies that he was working for a Sheriff's narcotics officer as he handed them two baggies of marijuana.

Deputies made a check and discovered that the name of the officer that Abel had given them was false. He was arrested and admitted, after questioning, that he had bought the illegal weed and had tried unsuccessfully to sell it at a bar. He said he had tried to sell it to a man named "Gino," who had smoked some at a parking lot near the bar.

Deputies then proceeded to the bar, where they saw a man who fit the description of the man Abel had told them about. Upon contact with the suspect, who was later identified as Eugene Nelson, it was noticed that there was a strong odor of marijuana about his breath and person.

While at the bar, suspect Koose was also observed, and a smell of marijuana was noticed about him. A search of Koose netted two more bags of marijuana.

Board OK's Vision Tests

perintendent was received, stating that the pay hikes would be affected and that salaries should be prepared on the 1970-71 schedule.

Tom Drogan, of the Lemon Grove Teachers Association, told trustees that the Association had voted overwhelmingly to take court action against the county.

It was brought up at the meeting that the salary increases could be made retroactive after the 90-day freeze ends, if it is determined that pay was withheld illegally.

It was also noted that teachers in the 12-month program in other districts were eligible for their increases, as they were working under the schedule prior to the August 15 date, when the freeze went into effect.

In the discussion, re-negotiation of teacher contracts was brought up as a way to make up for lost pay under the freeze. Re-negotiation could take place after the 90-day period to bring the annual salary up to the same level that they would have been had the freeze not been ordered.

If the teachers do not get the lost pay, it would go into the general fund, even though it was budgeted for the teacher salaries.

Redistricting Is Delayed

work on the plan was not completed until Monday afternoon. Original Plan 13 was re-drawn when it was discovered that the former home of Supervisor Boney was not included in his proposed east county district.

The board authorized a shift of boundary lines in the eastern portion of Bonita Valley to rectify this.

However, Sexton said this, and, improperly drawn boundary lines, made further shifts necessary for the new districts to have equal population.

Dollars Multiply In United Crusade Service

Lemon Grove residents received an estimated total of $39,159 in services last year from human care agencies supported by the United Crusade.

With the campaign kick-off on September 27, Lemon Grove will be seeking to raise a goal of $3,987. A difference of $30,189 returns to the community.

"Receiving more back in the community than we are asked to raise is made possible because major firms and the military contributing into the city of San Diego produce more than half of each year's countywide campaign goal," explained John Stenbeck, Lemon Grove Crusade chairman. "Many of our residents give to the Crusade through this big block, so it is only fair that their gifts return to their home community."

In 1970 the following services were provided to residents of Lemon Grove by United Crusade supported agencies.

Services for the sick and handicapped: Visiting Nurses, 191 home visits. Mercy Clinic, 323 medical and dental services. San Diego Speech and Hearing Center, 533 clinical evaluations, speech therapy and hearing education sessions. United Cerebral Palsy, 2,682 hours of service. Home-maker Service, 68 days' care.

Counseling and other special services for children and adults: Family Service Ass'n., 148 interviews. Child Guidance Clinic, 152 patient hours. Catholic Family Service, 17 clients. Episcopal Community Service, 24 services through work project. Jewish Family Service, 63 interviews. Salvation Army Door of Hope, 207 days' care. Travelers Aid, 11 individual cases. Children's Home Society of California, 9 families provided adoption and related services. Salvation Army Welfare Dept., 43 families and individuals assisted through food, medicine and clothing.

Character building services for boys and girls: Boy Scouts, 570 members. Girl Scouts, 569 girl and adult members. YMCA, 150 members. YWCA, 35 members. San Diego State College YMCA/YWCA, 15 members.

Residential care and treatment for emotionally disturbed children: Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, 163 days' care. Children's Home Ass'n., 221 days' care and treatment.

Other services to residents of Lemon Grove: Red Cross, 2,102 adults and children enrolled in various programs. San Diego Ass'n. for Retarded Children, 14 children assisted.

"We hope to see the day when recipients become independent and self-supporting," King said.

Poll Shows Wilson Leading For Mayor

Buoyed by last-minute polls which show him leading the 14-candidate field in the race for mayor, Pete Wilson this week said recent events have pinpointed some of the major issues in the campaign.

Wilson cited two major examples of how present lack of leadership has made city hall unresponsive to the needs of San Diegans.

One was Wilson's own disclosure of the strings attached to land developer Irvin Kahn's so-called offer of a park on the floor of Penasquitos Canyon.

The other was the stalling tactic employed against a City Planning Commission recommendation that billboards be banned in San Diego.

In both cases, said Wilson, the incumbent mayor acted against the best interests of the city.

Mayor Curran hailed the penasquitos proposal by Kahn, who contributed $2,500 to his campaign, without revealing the fact that the developer plans a community of 37,000, including industry and commercial establishments, a six-lane highway and a flood control channel.

The mayor also delayed passage of the anti-billboard ordinance.

"These are just two cases in which a special interest has predominated over the public interest," Wilson said. "They demonstrate far more graphically than any campaign speech why San Diego needs new leadership for the 1970s."

Wilson is the leader in the three most recent polls. Pollster Charles Kerch shows him first as do surveys taken by the Democratic State Central Committee and an independent polling organization utilizing a telephone sampling of 513.

The top two finishers in the Tuesday primary will run off city-wide November 2.

The Embers

has a name for it:

The Grog Shop is a warm, friendly place you can drop in to anytime for some kind words from Les or Frank, the bartenders . . . or to watch sports on a big colored TV . . . or just get a good, honest drink at a fair price.

It's a perfect place to take your wife or sweetheart . . . even to meet someone.

It's secluded and intimate. AND Oh, the good food!

True, it's a little off the beaten path . . . 8035 Broadway in Lemon Grove, but you can find it.

Plan to drop in soon; you'll be glad you did.

The election will decide whether or not the present 85 cents for each $100 assessed valuation on property shall be continued for an indefinite period. The present "over-ride" tax approval expires this year. Approval is sought starting with school years 1972-73.

Although the 85 cents rate has been in effect since approved five years ago, just 55 cents of it is being used this year.

The issue will appear on the ballot as "Special School District Maximum Tax Rate".

College trustees point to an 817 per cent increase in enrollment since the college started with an increase in assessed valuation of only 102 per cent in the district. Trustees also noted that the cost of operation has risen considerably during that period.

'Help' Is Key Word For Social Workers

Help is the key word for an Diego County Public Welfare Department social workers at two neighborhood referral and information centers in Normal Heights, 3345 Adams Ave., and North Park at 2860 North Park way.

"We're here to help people help themselves. We provide information about social, rehabilitative, health and employment services, employment preparation, placement and supervision of adults who cannot remain in their homes. We also identify need for medical services and help those in need make use of these services," said Donald King, supervisor of North Park neighborhood service center.

"Most of our clients are people who live in this neighborhood and are referred to us by our district office," King said, adding that information is also provided to the general public.

King explained that the new neighborhood centers speed up service and are operating efficiently and economically.

"Operating from large offices serving large areas is often more expensive in terms of transportation, both for our social workers and clients, and there is less opportunity for personal relationships to the clients."

"With proximity to those we're helping we've found a home call is no more than five minutes away," King said.

With small staffs at each center — one supervisor, seven social workers, one case aide — employees get to know each other's cases.

"One day we received a call from a welfare client who was having an epileptic seizure. The social worker who usually handles the case was on vacation. From the sound of the clients' voice we knew who she was, and her problem, and quickly dashed over in time to help her. This kind of service is seldom possible in a larger office."

Social workers also encourage unemployed youth to get part-time jobs. Employable recipients receive training to enable them to work later.

Both centers have rotating staffs of volunteer receptionists who are receiving welfare aid.

"We hope to see the day when they will receive paid employment, until then we feel they are gaining training and self confidence needed to compete in the job market," King said.

"Welfare recipients are people, often people who lack training and self confidence needed to get them out into the world," he said.

"Through short term goals we aim at one purpose — making the recipient independent and self-supporting," King added.

Motion Picture Due

The motion picture, "His Land", will be shown at the Bancroft Baptist Church, 2300 Bancroft dr., Spring Valley, Sunday evening at 7 p.m.

The film portrays a story of Israel from ancient to present times. Through the film viewers travel and walk the paths taken by Christ and the prophets — the Wilderness, Jerusalem, the Mount of Olives, the Sea of Galilee.

Reverend Lewis E. Ginn, Pastor of the Bancroft Church, has invited the community to enjoy the film, one of Billy Graham's productions.

Link Gets Real Estate Grand Prize

Ben Link, Jr. a sales representative of the local Lemon Grove Office of Art Leitch, Realtors, recently was awarded the grand prize in a company sponsored contest.

All twelve offices of the Art Leitch organization with the entire sales staff of 95 sales associates were eligible for the special contest for obtaining listings of real estate available for sale. The winner of the contest had the choice of an all expense paid vacation in Acapulco or the Hawaiian Islands.

Leitch presented the prize to Link at a recent general sales meeting. Link has been with the company since January of this year, shortly after obtaining his state real estate license, and has been working out of the Lemon Grove office under the supervision of Wally Knutson, manager of the local office.

Link said he was surprised to hear he was the winner in the contest. He and his wife are now planning to spend the Christmas Holidays touring the Hawaiian Islands.

Hospital Has Program

Edgemoor Geriatric Hospital has a patients' project that adds to their spending money and keeps them busy and happy.

They have a gift shop, manned by the patients. The articles are made by the patients and they receive a certain proportion of the proceeds, with the rest of the money used to buy supplies.

However, more articles to work on are needed, such as stamped goods, embroidery floss, seeds, raffa, beads, construction paper. Call 448-2411, Ext. 42, for a pick-up of any unwanted goods.

FROM SADDLE TO STUDIES — For many youngsters in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley, September not only marks the beginning of school, but also the end of saddle sores. The popular pastime of horseback riding will be less in evidence now that school has started, although many youngsters and their parents will put on their spurs on the weekends.

Scheidle Draws Crowd To Planning Ass'n Meeting

would be unable to make a good profit through development.

Scheidle told opponents to the plan that the zone change would be in effect for only one year, while the Lemon Grove Planning Association had time to develop a community plan and zoning recommendations.

Scheidle was not alone in his support of the zone change at the meeting, as several in attendance argued that development under present zoning would overcrowd schools, bring about problems with sewer lines, and cause problems with existing streets.

In other business at the meeting, the general membership passed a bylaws amendment and heard reports for special committees.

The bylaws amendment changed requirements for executive committee membership. Under the old bylaw, anyone who would signify his willingness to serve on the executive committee in writing would become a voting member.

The change calls for those wishing to become a voting member of the executive committee to attend three out of five consecutive meetings. The bylaws change also calls for those who miss three out of five consecutive meetings to be taken off the voting role at the discretion of the executive committee. Another change established 25% of the voting role as the needed quorum to take action as the executive committee at any meeting.

The next meeting will be next Thursday at 3 p.m.
